I personally didn't like Book 666. Way too many strange crossovers. Iron Man fell off of Jade Mountain and got eaten by Kinkajou, who is now IronJou. Dinosaurs were randomly brought back from extinction and fought giant butterflies who resembled geese. Another Prophecy was made and Tsunami committed suicide and reincarnated as a pine tree, while an obese Clay turned into a boulder and it fell on a chicken the size of a house.

I know it's an unpopular opinion but I actually loved Book 732 (The Half-Eaten Pizza).

SPOILER ALERT the part where Peril gets kidnapped by her own fireproof pizza that she made for Clay but then Anemone and Tamarin work together to rescue her and accidentally explode Starflight which turns Fatespeaker into a burrito that Turtle ate was awesome.

Not to mention Qibli and Winter's comedy show.

@Sorrel: Starflight wanted to get cherries for his pet balloon. Such an annoying plot.

Why does everyone always skip book number 32752096? That one was the best! Especially the part when Sunny marries a scavenger and they have a choild that is half Sunny half scavenger. So basically a Sunny with a scavenger head and scavenger toes. And then it flies up into the sky and becomes a second sun. And then Turtle is extremely jealous, because NO FAIR THERE ALREADY IS A YELLOW SUN AND HE, IN FACT,

WOULD MAKE A PERFECT BLUE ONE! So he calls Tui to complain and Tui visits Pyrrhia and gives Peril a spork. With the power of that spork, Peril is able to make a giant city out of cards! Starflight is intrigued, and, remember, he makes up a story about Queen Peril of the SporkWings, in Card Kingdom. And then Queen Coral is so angry because everyone likes Starflight's story better than her scrolls, so she holds a royal banquet in which she makes Whirlpool eat every. single. scroll. she has ever made. That part's the best! And remember when Whirlpool gets so mad that he turns into a soap bar? And then Clay finds him, eats him, and can only blow bubbles now and can't speak. So there Clay is, blowing bubbles out of his mouth, when Fatespeaker suddenly has a revelation. Clay, she says, has invented BubbleSpeak! Apparently BubbleSpeak is now the official language of Pyrrhia. Every dragonet is required to eat a soap bar when they would normally be learning to talk. The different words and phrases consist of the number of bubbles blown in between spaces, and the intricate pattern in which they are popped by the dragon's talons. SixClaws is especially good at BubbleSpeak and he even invents a way to sing with bubbles, which he calls BubbleWarble. Every year, dragons compete in the national BubbleWarble competition, but SixClaws holds the record of the best BubbleWarbler in all of Pyrrhia and even Pantala. BubbleJuice is sold in markets in different colors, so you can swallow the colorful BubbleJuice and have your bubbles be colorful for the next three days! This is especially popularly used at parties. Scented BubbleJuice has also been invented so it can also make you smell good! Flavorful BubbleJuice is also a popular choice, because it erases the bitterness of the normal BubbleJuice. Styrofoam and kefir are the most popular flavors of BubbleJuice.
